HERITAGE LINK
BRANDS

HERITAGE LINK BRANDS is a globally trusted source for curating high quality, fair trade, organic and sustainable wine, food, showcases and services.

Established in 2005, Heritage Link Brands holds the distinction of being the largest Black wine importer and producer in the world, curating over 70 million liters of wine annually. In 2008, Heritage Link Brands became the third largest fair trade certified wine importer in the world.

Company founders Khary and Selena Cuffe began with a clear vision to provide social impact goods and services of the highest quality, thereby improving the lives of people around the globe. Their leadership, coupled with sound strategies and social responsibility, has produced a world-class organization, rooted in sustainability and transformational business practices.
