

The History of Casa Valduga Brazilian Wines

In 1875, the first immigrant from the Valduga family came from Trento – Italy, made landfall on Brazilian soil in an important region today known as Vale dos Vinhedos.

It was here that the first vines were planted and gave rise to a story intertwined with the development of Brazilian viticulture

Today, more than 140 years of descended tradition is combined with the latest fine wine production techniques in Brazil
